The Woman's Auxiliary of the Outrigger Club will hold a meeting at the residence of Mrs. F. M. Swamy at 10 o'clock Monday morning, August 26.

A full attendance is requested, as important matters are to be considered.
The servants' quarters of J. R. Galt's residence on Liliha street were entered yesterday morning and $20 in cash stolen. The police suspect a native boy who had been seen loitering in the neighborhood of the Galt place.

Attention is called to the advertisement of M. McInerny, Ltd., appearing in this issue. This is the oldest firm of clothiers and mens' furnisiers in the islands and any of the goods sold by it will stand the most minute investigation. The tailoring department which was installed a year or more ago, has proved a great success and a boon to men who want an individuality in their clothing that is not obtainable in ready-to-wear suits. An examination of the large stock of materials in the store will be interesting.

ED LORD'S CAR
BANGS SIDEWALK
Bad Accident Reported, But Nothing Is Hurt Except a Wheel.
Ed Lord's speedy Chalmers car was piled up on the sidewalk at King and Keeaumoku streets this morning and the rumor went around the city that there had been an accident, with Lord figuring as smashed up in it.

About 11 o'clock Mr. Lord himself appeared driving serenely downtown in the car, which beyond a few slight scratches and a new wheel in the rear showed no signs of having collided with the sidewalk. Mr. Lord explained that he was driving homeward last night on King street when he saw a Japanese express wagon directly in front of him and on the wrong side of the street. To avoid a collision in getting past, he swung to one side and the wheels slipped on the paving, which was wet with rain. The car banged into the sidewalk and one wheel crumpled up. He was the only occupant of the car and was uninjured. This morning a new wheel was put on the car and the damage was speedily fixed up.

SMALL ESTATE
WITHOUT HEIRS
Albert Steinke, who was a bookkeeper in the Inter-Island ship chandlery, died in Honolulu on July 12 last. He was evidently a German, over fifty years of age at death, and had been living here for about nine years.

The man left a small amount of property in the hands of the Guardian Trust Company, but so far the company has been unable to get any definite statement of who his heirs are, or whether he had a wife and family anywhere. Everything in the company's power is being done to learn if Steinke left any heirs.

For news and the truth about it, all people buy the Star-Bulletin.

IF you go away from home
you want clothes that look right; you don't want people to be able to "locate you" by the way you dress.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

clothes are made on "world styles;" there's no locality about them; you can wear them anywhere in the world where men dress well, and be sure you are correctly dressed.

And the style stays stylish; all-wool fabrics, perfectly shrunk; perfectly tailored; that's what keeps shape in clothes.
